GAME PRODUCER

ABOUT ME

Game producer with experience coordinating multidisciplinary teams at an international studio, with several projects recognized by critics and the industry. My work combines planning, production tracking, and coordination across departments such as art, tech, design, animation, audio, and QA. My goal is to support the team's workflow, anticipate blockers, foster smooth communication between departments, and help ensure every project milestone is reached with the expected level of quality. Passionate about game development, I approach every new challenge with enthusiasm, dedication, and a mindset geared toward continuous improvement.

EXPERIENCE

Project Manager – Content & Communication

Rumbo Alternativo — 12/2025 – 06/2026

Main clients: Vithas and Mutua Madrileña

- Coordination of calendars, roadmaps and production sprints, managing priorities and objectives through direct meetings with each client to translate their needs to the team.
- Reached out to external specialists (translators, voice talent, video editors, 3D artists), comparing quotes to land on the right balance of cost, timeline and quality for each project.
- Structuring workflows into parallel phases and batches, allowing translation, design and review to move forward simultaneously without blocking production.
- Quality control of deliverables through a dedicated review pass before every delivery.
- Proactive management of delays caused by third parties (pending client content, external IT teams), adjusting the roadmap and bringing clarity to the project along the way.

Associate Producer

Flatter Than Earth — Project: Once Upon a Puppet — 11/2023 – 04/2025

- Leading a multidisciplinary team of 30+ people, aligning workflows across art, technology, design, VFX, audio, UI/UX and QA.
- Design and implementation of a roadmap and milestone system that brought consistency to the team and improved cross-department visibility.
- Development of asset, VFX and per-level animation trackers, managing the backlog based on content-lock impact and cross-team dependencies.
- Responsible for playtesting sessions and QA feedback cycles, classifying bugs in Mantis and prioritizing their resolution.
- Supervision of voiceover and VFX partners, ensuring on-time delivery, correct integration and consistent quality.
- Leadership of daily stand-ups, lead meetings, planning sessions and reviews to track progress, resolve blockers and support team performance.

Scrum Master (Internship)

Dairus, Spain — 04/2021 – 07/2021

- Planning and oversight of production, building roadmaps, breakdowns and trackers.
- Task tracking and assignment under two-week Agile sprints, with weekly reporting and risk analysis.
- Collaboration as a 3D generalist in animation, modeling, shading and rendering.

ACADEMIC PROJECTS

Howl of Iron (Vertical Slice)

U-TAD, Madrid — 04/2022 – 01/2023

- Producer of Howl of Iron, a vertical slice developed by a multidisciplinary team of U-TAD students. Winner of the Best Game Design award at PlayStation Talents.
